JGIM Statement Regarding Copyright

The Corresponding Author must complete this form on behalf of all authors listed on the submission.

The Author represents and warrants that he/she is the author and proprietor of the Article, that he/she is the sole and exclusive owner of all rights in multimedia material, that he/she has not granted or assigned any rights in the Article to any other person or entity, that the Article is copyrightable, that it does not infringe upon any copyright, trademark, or patent, that it does not invade the right of privacy or publicity of any person or entity, that it does not contain any libelous matter, that all statements asserted as facts are true or based upon reasonable research for accuracy and that, to the best of the Author's knowledge, no formula, procedure, or prescription contained in the Article would cause injury if used or followed in accordance with the instructions and/or warnings contained in the Article.

The Author will indemnify the SGIM against any costs, expenses, or damages that the SGIM may incur or for which the SGIM may become liable as a result of any breach of these warranties. These representations and warranties may be extended to third parties by the SGIM.

Specific for JGIM Web

The pieces published on JGIM Web are NOT indexed in MEDLINE and NOT published in the print journal. Once published on JGIM Web, requests for "unpublishing" will not be entertained. Authors do retain the copyright to materials published on JGIM Web and they can repurpose the content for submission elsewhere. However, once submitted, authors must wait until the review process has been completed by the JGIM Web Editorial team prior to submitting elsewhere. Also, we request that authors contact us if a piece that we previously published is accepted in another journal, and we ask that you reference JGIM Web as the original publisher in subsequent publications of the article. Please do not submit work that has already been published elsewhere.
