
New This Year to SGIM!

The Interprofessional Education (IPE) Interest Group

Please join us at the National SGIM Meeting on Saturday, May 7th at 7:30am.

What is IPE?

“Occasions when two or more professionals learn with, from,
and about each other to improve collaboration and the quality of care” Hugh Barr

Why should you attend the IPE Interest Group?

- To learn more about interprofessional education and how to bring it your learners
- To share your IPE experiences with others
- To get new ideas for your educational work
- To collaborate with others across the country working in IPE
